

Abstract of disclosure

A rotary wheel (1) for radial pumps includes an intermediate wall (6) at which one or more vanes (2a, 2b) are provided on both sides. Passage openings (3) are formed in the intermediate wall (6) in order to distribute a desired pump flow onto the vanes (2a, 2b) on both sides of the intermediate wall.